

Eileen Pall
Kendall Park NJ USA
eileenpall@hotmail.com
1-732-789-5272

Education:

Rutgers University, New Brunswick NJ:
– Bachelor of Arts in Music
– Masters of Library and Information Science.

Dance Education: Studying Tango since 2006 with Robin Thomas (New York). Other teachers include Lesley Mitchell (Philadelphia, PA), and Vittoria Natale and Guillermo Elkouss (Cherry Hill, NJ)

Completed the Mark Morris Group's "Dance for PD" workshop - 2010
Presently under the mentorship of Dr. Madeleine Hackney (Atlanta GA)

Work experience:

2011 - TheraTango – founded TheraTango with colleague, Kerry Kay.
- worked with the American Parkinson's Disease Association and Robert Wood Johnson Hospital to start a pilot program of "Tango for PD", a program based on the Tango and Parkinson's Disease studies of Earhart and Hackney 2010 – present: Teaches Tango classes that are mixed with senior citizens and people with disabilities such as information processing disorders and Parkinson's.

2009-present: Assistant to Robin Thomas and his partner in Beginner classes in Princeton, NJ.

1996-2011 - Dow Jones & Co. Princeton NJ, Content Management
Experience includes managing document categorization and content operations teams in the US and in London from 2003-2011.